Valerie Henry is an internationally known Christian dance soloist / choreographer/teacher who holds degrees both from the University of the Arts (BM) and American University (MA). She has helped to pioneer Christian dance worldwide performing, choreographing and teaching. She is the official Choreographer of the Worship Musical, We Are Called, by Steve Fry and was soloist & choreographer in the original, 22-city national tour. For 17 years she was soloist and main choreographer for The Christian Celebration during the Feast of Tabernacles in Jerusalem, Israel, where up to 150 nations were represented each year. She serves both locally and globally, choreographing & teaching all ages, in workshops or regular classes in ballet, pointe, world dance, and modern dance while maintaining itinerant performance ministry. This year Valerie made her first dance ministry trip to Kerala, India & the Dutch Island of Aruba. Ms. Henry loves teaching privately and giving individual coaching! You will not want to miss this opportunity to improve your dance skills and grow spiritually, working on this ministry event! If you are financially challenged, partial scholarships are available.
